    SAC overhaul: SAC will undergo a drastic change to mitigate issues that linger until meetings and become matters of discussion at these meetings. The communication channels will encourage matters to be addressed and handled at the lowest level, with a solution moving forward. Dr. Stillman is available and willing to ensure that all parents' and children's concerns are properly addressed.

    There will be 4 meetings in a school year, one each quarter, but the schedule will be finalized once the black and gold school schedule comes out.

    Upcoming Events and Activities – there are a lot of upcoming events: big event clap out, graduation; still, we have students taking AP testing and a few more weeks for the general population of students.
